CLASS HISTORY

As we near the end of our high school days, we pause to look back over the years and recall a few of the many,joyful times in our school career.

Let us take a little time now to let our memories wander back to the year 1936. We recall many, eager, little first graders entering the classrooms of various schools to gain an education.Among these was the senior class of 1949.Little did we realize then that our high school days would be spent together at Genesee High.

As we entered the classrooms of Genesee as freshmen in the year 1944,we had a class membership of sixteen--Margaret Green, Frances Truax, James Truax, Harold Sherwood, Elsie McCaslin,Richard Cooney,John Sebastian,Raymond Baker, Robert Moran,Dorothy Beckhorn, Wrayburn Beckhorn,Patricia McGinnis, Eva Trebik, Bessie Conable, Ruth Conable, Rexford Densmore, and Yvonne Ferguson. Rexford Densmore left us that year. Boy! We had fun in Mr. Rose's classes, didn't we?

When we came to school as sophomores, we found that Margaret Green,Wrayburn Beckhorn, Frances Truax,James Truax, Harold Sherwood, and Elsie McCaslin had left us. During that year Jane Stone and Juanitta Ferrier joined us, but Juanitta left us again before the year was over. Our studies, which included geometry, were a bit tough, but fortunately we all pulled through.

Jane Stone and Yvonne Ferguson did not return our junior year. Mrs. Kear was our class advisor and we did a number of things to raise funds for the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. We sold greeting cards,candy, lunches on Tuesdays,and had a record dance. Our class enjoyed a very nice picnic in the park with our class advisor,Mrs.Kear. Prof and Mr.Decker joined us as we were finishing our lunch of hamburgers, cold pop, ice cream, and cookies.

Now as we glance at our memory books again, we are in the school year of 1948-1949. We are seniors! Sylvia Piangatelli joined our class this year. During the year we were kept busy raising funds for our trip which we plan to make to Washington, D.C. We had a lot of fun preparing our senior play, "Here Comes Charlie",which was a big success. We also sold Christmas cards and candy. Our class raised additional funds from the Lew Frank's "Variety Show", which was held in the auditorium.We all enjoyed working on our yearbook and we hope that it will be enjoyed by our classmates and friends. One of the final high lights of our high school days was the Junior-Senior Prom, which was held on May 10th in a beautifully decorated gymnasium. Once again we enjoyed the music of Nelson Sickler and his orchestra.

Raymond Baker,Richard Cooney,and Patricia McGinnis were the only members of our class to have completed all twelve years of their education at Genesee.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1949,having nearly completed our short life at Genesee High, and now about to depart for unknown shores, do hereby make, publish,and declare the following to be our last will and testament:

1. Bessie Conable leaves her good humor to Louise Fairman, who will probably make good use of it.

2. Richard Cooney leaves his front seat in study hall to Regina Moran. (She thinks it's nice too.)

3. Sylvia Piangatelli leaves her ability to play the clarinet to Sandra Flamini, who is already showing along this line.

4. Robert Moran leaves his good studying ability to Dorothy Irwin.

5. Patricia McGinnis leaves Jim Sebastian to Wilma Irwin.

6. Raymond Baker leaves his nights at the Skating Rink in Wellsville to Jack Rathbun,who is seen there quite often.

7. Eva Trebik leaves her energy foods to Mr. Judd. (Candy that is.)

8. John Sebastian leaves his basketball ability to Richard Adams. Make use of it, Apple.

9. Ruth Conable leaves her artistic ability to Dane Chapman who is already pretty good at it.

10. Dorothy Beckhorn leaves her well-beloved history book to Grace Hallock,who will probably be needing one next year.

And lastly,to those who follow in our illustrious footsteps, we give, devise and bequeath the joys and disappointments of our senior year. Our sun has set at Genesee; the Class of '49 is about to enter scholastic history; therefore we name the Class of '50 executors of this,our last will and testament.

JUNIORS

First Row: Ellen Trebik, Marjorie Eaton, Betty Faton, Jane Glover, Dorothy Irwin, June Price, Regina Moran.
Second Row: Mr. Judd, Jeanne Cooney, Phyllis Burch, Richard Adams, Vincent Salvadge, James Sebastian, Dane Chapman, Jack Rathbun, Louise Fairman, Lois Ransom.

Junior Class History

Of the present Junior Class, six members started to school here together in 1938. They are: Richard Adams, Jane Glover, June Price, James Sebastian, Lois Ransom, and Regina Moran.

Louise Fairman joined us in the third grade. Phyllis Burch came here from Andrews Settlement in fifth grade. Dane Chapman, Jack Rathbun, and Ellen Trebik joined our class in the seventh grade. Jeanne Cooney came here in the 10th grade. Vince Salvadge, Marjorie and Betty Eaton joined us this year.

We began our freshman year with a class of 28. This was the largest Freshman Class in many years. The class officers that year were: President, Regina Moran, Vice President, Richard Adams, Secretary, June Price, Treasurer, Jack Rathbun.

When we were Sophomores we earned our first money. We had a Halloween Party and cleared $26.00. The class officers were: President, Regina Moran, Vice President, Jack Rathbun, Secretary, Lois Ransom, Treasurer, James Sebastian. There were 18 of us that year.

Every Tuesday this year we sold lunches to the school children. We also sponsored the movies, "The Song of Bernadette", on March 18, and "Swanee River", on April 21st.

The class officers this year are:

President-----June Price
Vice Pres.--Jack Rathbun
Secretary---Regina Moran
Treasurer--Dorothy Irwin

SOPHOMORES

First Row: Gayle Ferrier, Louise Whitaker, Joan McGinnis, Marie McCaslin, Anne Cooney, Constance Pierce, Doris Kenyon.

Sophomore History

On September 5, 1939, twenty-nine eager little first graders walked slowly up the sidewalk into the Genesee High School with frightened faces, curious to see what was inside. Mildred Thomas greeted us at the door with a happy smile.

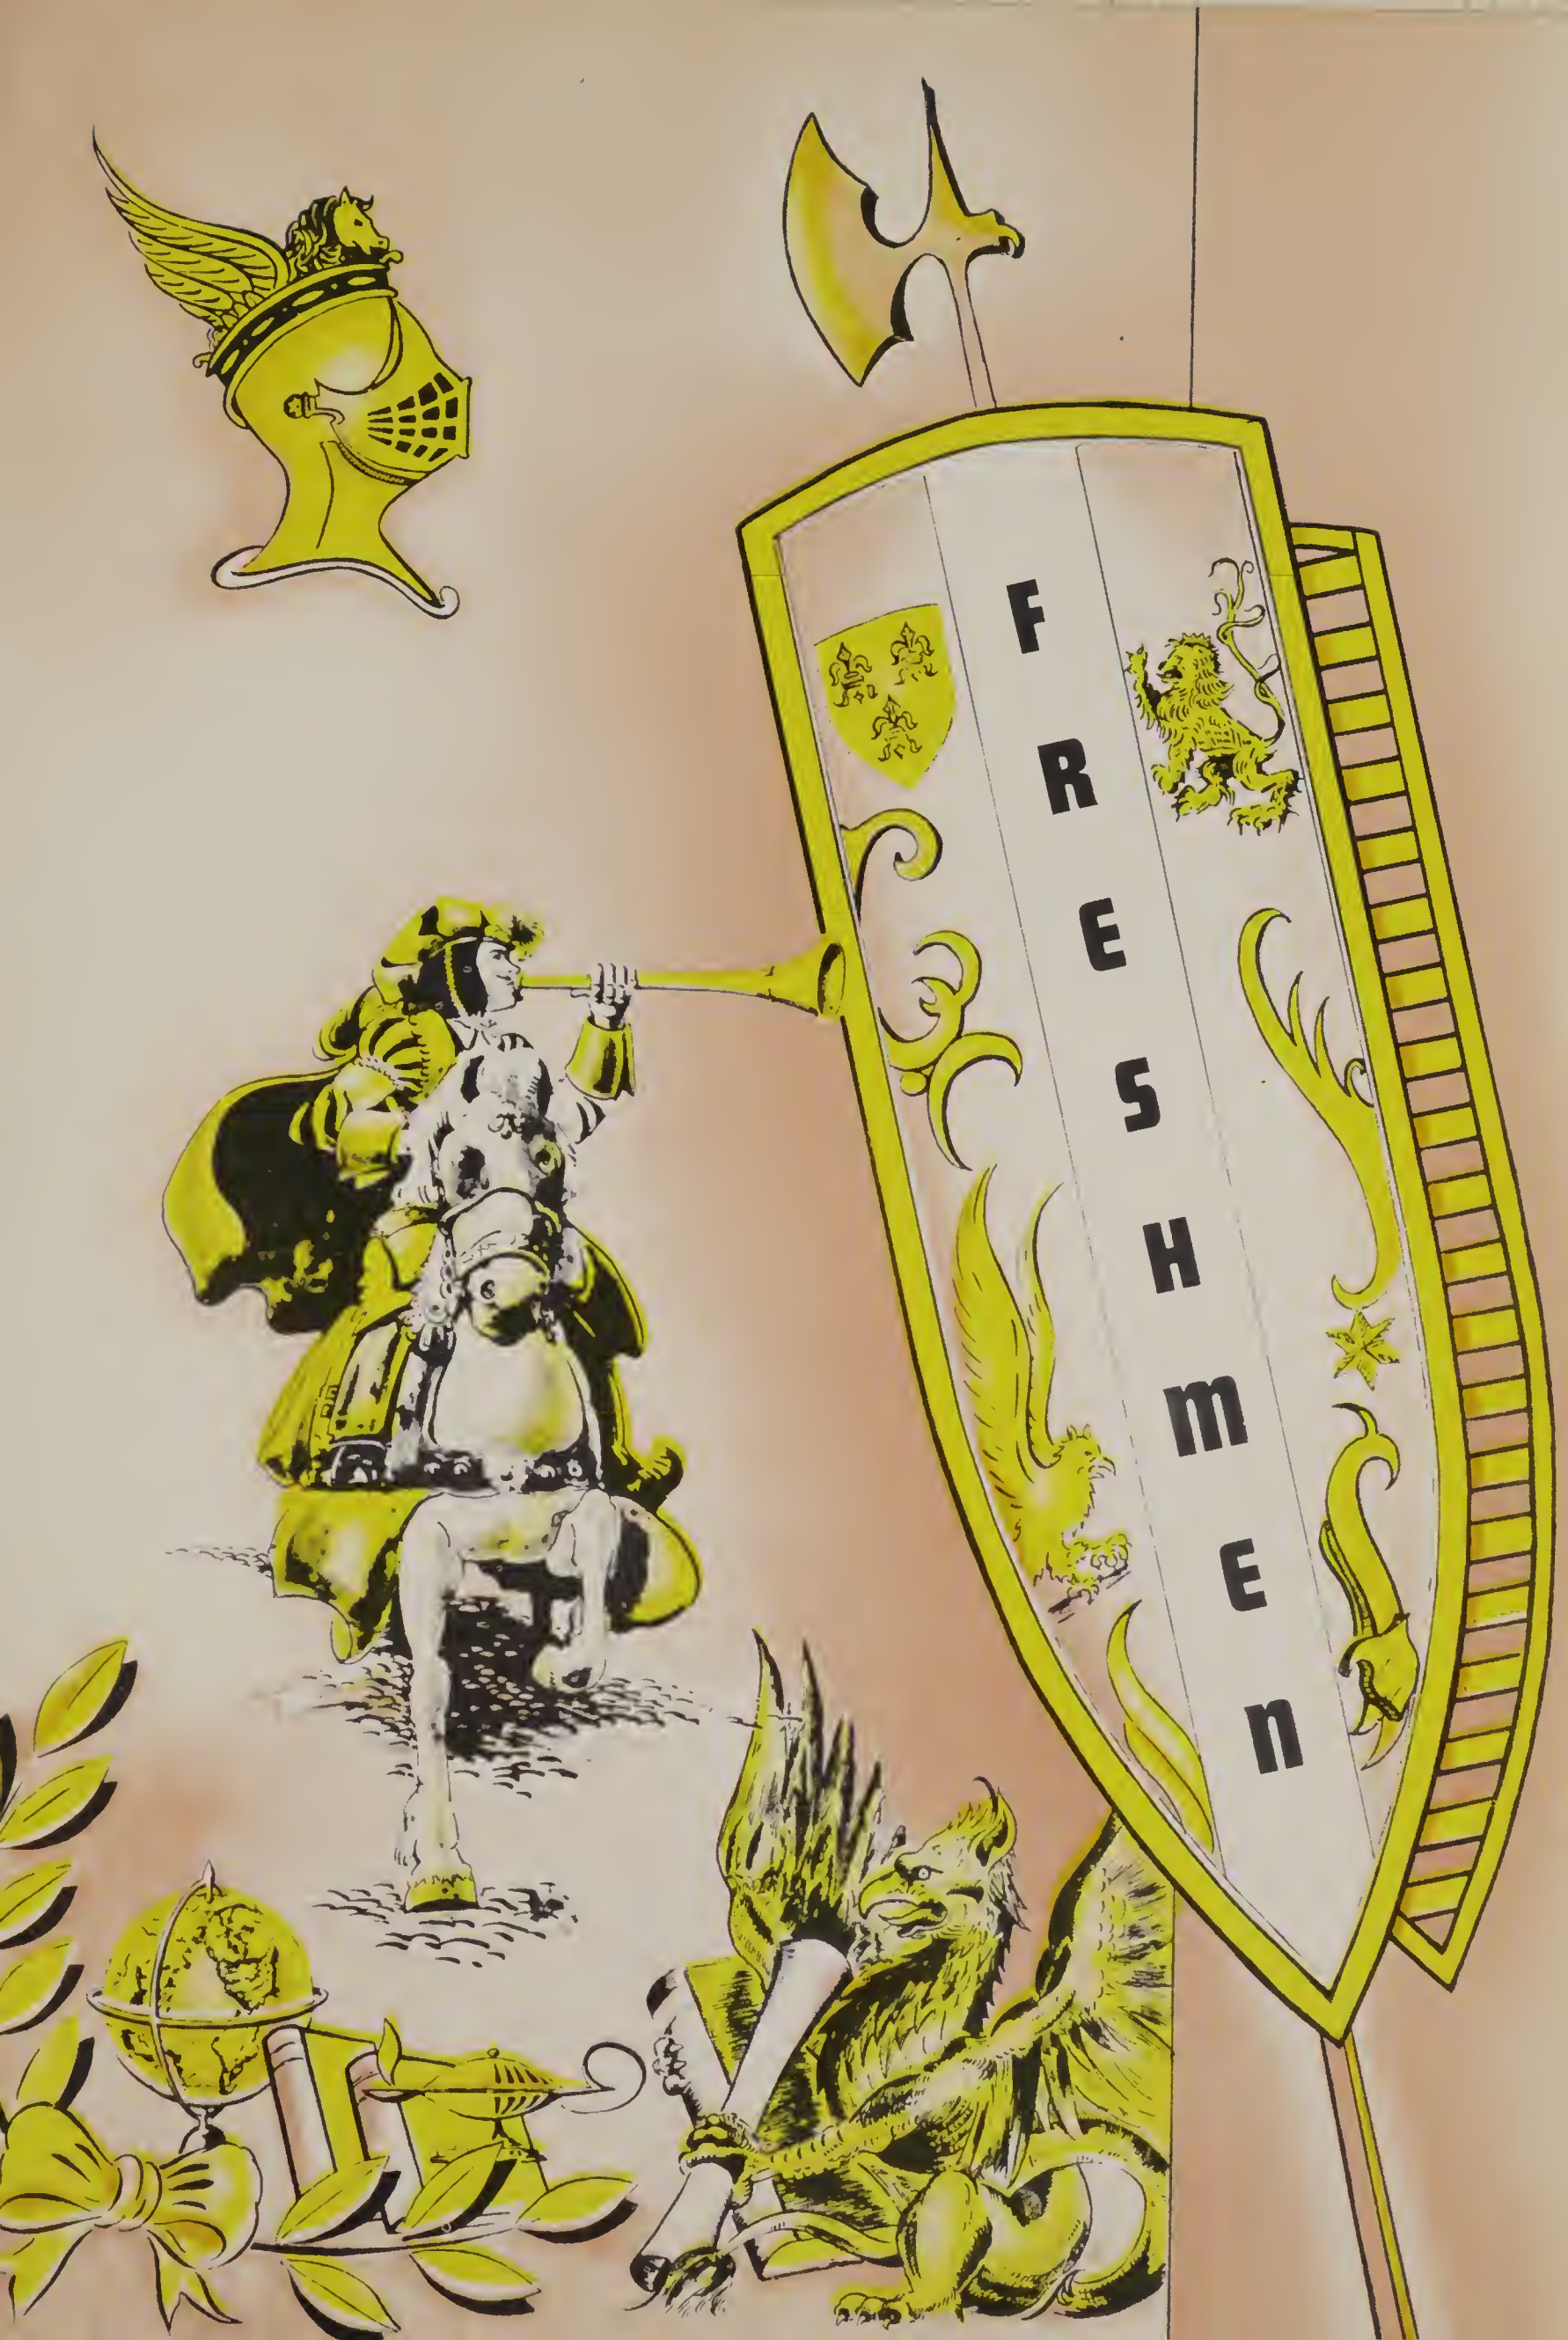
During these years in the grades many interesting things happened. By the time we reached eighth grade, Anne Cooney and Louise Whitaker had earned five year perfect attendance certificates. Joan McGinnis and Donald Close were valedictorians of the eighth grade.

Starting in our freshman year there were twenty-four in our class and Mr. Phillips was our class advisor. Eugene Elliott, Guy Knickerbocker, and Paul Green left us this year. Connie Pierce joined us from Oswayo. This year we sold candy at the basket-ball games. We had a wonderful time at our skating party at the Funcrest Roller Rink at Wellsville. Each member invited a guest. On the last day of school we held the farewell party of our freshman year in the Genesee Park.

Now we are in our sophomore year. We lost Fred Silsby and Charles Dunbar,but Bonnie Cumberledge came to join us. We are increasing our class treasury by selling candy during the noon hour. This year we had a hay ride with a jeep. On our trip we had a flat tire but we all had fun. We ended up with hot chocolate and cake at Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's. Mr. Judd is our class advisor this year. Our class officers are as follows.

President--Joan McGinnis
Vice Pres.-Connie Pierce
Secretary--Gayle Lou Ferrier
Treasurer--Marion Kuhn

We are looking forward to graduation in 1951 with the nineteen pupils we now have, and our trip to Washington, D. C.



FRESHMEN

First Row: Velma Jeffers, Wilma Irwin, Elizabeth Baumgarner, Donna Fye, Rosemary Price, Grace Hallock.
Second Row: June Proctor, Howard Graham, Delmar Slingerland, Thomas Hackett Robert Slawson, Mary Jean Outman, Mr. Irwin.

Freshman Class History

In September, 1940, twenty four very scared children started in first grade hoping to graduate sometime in the spring of 1952. Of that class there are now only four members still looking forward to 1952. Up through the grades we lost many classmates but also gained a few, making us twelve in number.

Mrs. Thomas, our first grade teacher, owned a rabbit named Bunny Boy, which we were allowed to play with if we had done our homework. Rosemary Price and Dale Hackett were quite proud to see their pictures, along with Bunny Boy's appear in the newspaper.

Mr. Briggs was quite disappointed to find that we, did more giggling than studying while in the eighth grade. (Of course we never giggle any more. We know Mrs. Kear will agree to this.)

Now that our freshman year is nearly over we have decided that high school isn't so hard as we thought it was going to be. We hope that the rest of our years here in Genesee will be as easy as this year has been.

We elected the following officers for our Freshman year:

President--Wilma Irwin
Vice Pres.-Rosemary Price
Secretary--Elizabeth Baumgarner
Treasurer--Grace Hallock
